

NATHAN MANTEL AWARD FOR LIFETIME CONTRIBUTIONS TO STATISTICS IN EPIDEMIOLOGY
CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Section on Statistics in Epidemiology (SIE) of the American Statistical Association (ASA) invites nominations for the Nathan Mantel Award for lifetime contributions to the development and application of statistical science to problems and issues in epidemiology. The award is in honor of Nathan Mantel (1919-2002), in recognition of his pivotal contributions to statistics in epidemiology. The award consists of $1000 and a plaque and will be presented by the SIE Section at the Joint Statistical Meetings (JSM) in Seattle, Washington in August 2021.

The nominee should be a person widely known to have a strong established record in developing statistical methods for epidemiology. The nominee should be a member of the ASA, but consideration is not limited to candidates who are members of the SIE Section.

To submit a nomination, please submit a CV and cover letter to Nicole Bohme Carnegie (nicole.carnegie@montana.edu), the Section Secretary/Treasurer, by February 15, 2021. Questions about the award can also be addressed to Charlie Hall, the Section Chair at charles.hall@einsteinmed.org.

Previous recipients of the Nathan Mantel Award include Norman Breslow, Ron Brookmeyer, Mitchell Gail, Ross Prentice, Jamie Robins, Clarice Weinberg, Alice Whittemore, Paul Rosenbaum, and Betz Halloran.
