

ANNA Connected 101

www.annanurse.org/connected

Communities in ANNA Connected

You can always access your communities from the top of the ANNA Connected home page. Communities, My Communities.

Click on the title of the Community to view it.

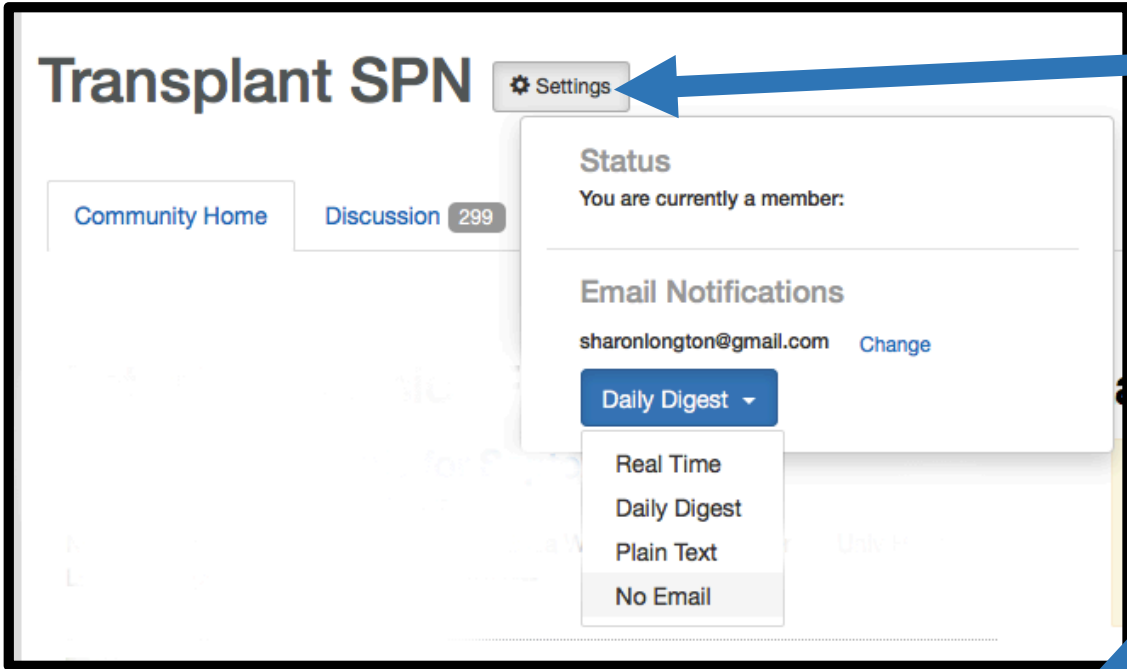

The community is the umbrella under which the discussion group lives.

Each community has ...

- a discussion group – to communicate
- a library – to share files
- an event listing – to share upcoming meetings, etc
- a member listing – to see who is in the group

Community Notifications

For each community of which you are a part, you can select how often you would like to receive communications.

You can do this from the main community page under "Settings" OR

While at your profile, click on "My Account," then "Community Notifications."

