Consortium Chair

The International Management Division will conduct a Junior Faculty Consortium on Saturday, August 13th from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., during the pre-conference period of the 2011 Academy of Management Annual Meeting in San Antonio, Texas.

This Junior Faculty Consortium is for untenured faculty members who have successfully defended their dissertations and are interested in international management research and teaching. Selection preference will be given to applicants beginning their first through fourth year in a faculty appointment in Fall, 2011. The consortium will provide an opportunity for faculty early in their careers to engage in structured discussion and informal interaction with a broad-based panel of senior faculty from around the world on research, teaching, and career development. It is an excellent forum for exchanging ideas and tips about research, teaching, career planning, and professional development, and serves as an outstanding opportunity to expand one's academic network. In addition to presentations by the faculty panel, one concurrent session will be devoted to paper development, where junior faculty will have the opportunity to present and discuss their current research projects in small groups.

The consortium also includes a "Meet the Editors" session with the Doctoral Consortium attendees, where participants will meet the editors of leading journals publishing international management research.

The Jr. Faculty Consortium is being organized by William Newbury (Florida International University).

Preliminary faculty panelists are:

Timothy Devinney, University of Technology, Sydney
Lorraine Eden, Texas A&M University
Jean-Francois Hennart, Tilburg University
