IM Division Mid-Career Faculty Consortium 2016

Nakiye A. Boyacigiller
IM Division MFC Chair

The IM Division is organizing a Mid-Career Faculty Consortium (MFC) on Saturday, August 6th from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the 2016 Academy of Management Annual Meeting in Anaheim, California.

The MFC is for tenured faculty who want to reflect strategically about their career progress. A panel of distinguished faculty will address strategies to develop, renew or maintain MFC participants' ability to lead a rewarding career. The panelists will discuss professional challenges, problems, and opportunities facing faculty post-tenure and the challenges on the road to becoming a Full Professor.

Panelists will share views on topics ranging from publishing high quality international research, editorial roles, sabbaticals, leadership in professional organizations, changing institutions, executive education, conference organization, administrative roles, and working with doctoral students. The expertise of the panelists encompasses both macro and micro approaches to international research, as well as deep knowledge pertaining to a variety of areas around the world. The session will be facilitated to be highly interactive.

Tentative Format of the Consortium

- Lunch with opportunities for informal networking
- Presentations on specific topics by invited panelists and Q&A session
- Small group discussions led by invited panelists

Faculty panelists:

Nakiye A. Boyacigiller (Sabanci University), IM Division MFC Chair
