Call for Nominations

Nomination Deadline: April 30, 2024

We are pleased to announce that the Organization and Management Theory (OMT) division will once again hold its Junior Faculty Consortium as part of the Academy of Management (AOM) Annual Meeting. This year the consortium is tentatively scheduled on Friday August 9th, 2024. The consortium will be in person in Chicago, USA.

If you have started a faculty position in the last few years, this consortium is for you! The consortium will provide an intimate forum for interacting with senior colleagues and peers about how to prosper in your academic career.

It will include a combination of feedback sessions, panels, and facilitated discussions focused on four key topics (all on August 9th, 2024), with a social to take place on the evening of August 8th, 2024:

1. Developing your research for publication with the help of seasoned scholars in your area.
2. Strategies for impact and growth as a researcher and teacher.
3. Navigating the early years of building a successful faculty career in diverse institutional settings.
4. Preparing for promotion and tenure.

Just over 30 faculty mentors have confirmed their participation in this event. Many have been editors for leading journals and won prestigious research and teaching awards. They represent a range of career levels and geographies and will provide diverse perspectives. The roster includes:

Application Instructions

If you hold a faculty position as an Assistant Professor or comparable rank and your research focuses on OMT related topics, we encourage you to apply to the JFC. Late stage post-docs may also apply for consideration. We also invite deans, department chairs, former participants, and other faculty to encourage their junior colleagues to apply.

The consortium is designed to allow for high levels of interaction. To maintain a high mentor/participant ratio, space for this consortium remains limited. Interested participants must be OMT members (either already or by joining now).

Applications are due by April 30th, 2024 and require the submission of the following information:

1. Your name, email address, title, institutional affiliation
2. An indication of three faculty mentors who are of most interest to you
3. Your curriculum vitae
4. An extended abstract of a working paper on which you wish to receive feedback (5 pages maximum). Please name your abstract using the following convention: Last name_Title of paper. For example, “James_Towards a Theory of Social Evaluations”.

Several waivers of the AOM conference’s registration fees and stipends are available to support participants who are interested in applying but lack budget/resources from their schools or otherwise.

Please submit your application form via the following link: https://forms.gle/q6xpQE24mkzrSDAZ7 and upload CV and extended abstract to the Dropbox folder here.

If you have any questions, please contact the organizers Madeline Toubiana, toubiana@telfer.uottawa.ca and Emily Block, eblock@ualberta.ca. We look forward to seeing you in-person at AOM!

A big thank you to our generous sponsors for making this possible.
