

2008 Annual Meeting of the California Section of the American Physical Society

October 17-18, 2008

<http://aps-ca.lbl.gov>

California State University
Dominguez Hills
Carson, CA

Plenary Talks:

Beate Heinemann (UC Berkeley)

The LHC: the Start of a Revolution in Physics

Tony Tyson (UC Davis)

Dark Science with the Large Synoptic Survey Telescope (LSST)

Jay Marx (CalTech)

Seeing Ripples in Space-Time with LIGO

Richard Boyd (LLNL)

The National Ignition Facility – A Star (in the lab) is Born

Dinner Talk:

Uwe Bergmann (SSRL)

"The Archimedes Palimpsest under X-ray Vision"

Parallel Talks:

Postdocs, students and others are encouraged to present short talks.

Abstracts should be submitted by Oct 1.

Registration (free) begins in September at
<http://aps-ca.lbl.gov>

Prizes for the best student/postdoc talks.

Travel support for student/postdocs.

Free lodging possible for students.

Local Contact: aps-ca@csudh.edu

Program Contact: calaps08@lbl.gov

