

FAQs

AttPro Solo Starter and Arkansas Bar Association Members Program

What is AttPro Solo Starter?

AttPro Solo Starter is a program developed specifically to meet the needs of newly licensed attorneys who are establishing their own practice.

Will I have a local broker who can answer my insurance questions?

Yes. Stephens Insurance is an established brokerage headquartered in Little Rock, Arkansas. They are considered a Top 50 U.S. Insurance Brokerage and the largest insurance firm in Arkansas. Their local team is ready to assist you with your questions. They will also help you with your application and submit it to AttPro on your behalf.

What can you tell me about the program's financial strength?

The Attorney Protective program is underwritten by National Liability & Fire Insurance Company, a member of the Berkshire Hathaway group of insurance companies. National Liability & Fire Insurance Company has earned an A.M. Best financial strength rating of A++, the highest rating given by A.M. Best. For more information about A.M. Best's rating system, please visit www.ambest.com.

Is AttPro a specialist?

AttPro specializes in legal professional liability (LPL) insurance only. Events affecting other lines of insurance (e.g., a hurricane or a tornado) will not affect the coverage, premiums, or other services you receive through the AttPro program.

What online resources are offered by AttPro?

Law firms insured through the AttPro program have access to our exclusive online AttPro Best Practices Database, which provides answers to frequently asked questions, numerous risk management articles and best practice lists. All of these resources are conveniently organized by topic and available 24 hours a day.

Can I apply online?

Yes. Go to www.attorneyprotective.com/arkbar to apply online or download a printable application. A representative from Stephens Insurance will receive your application and will contact you with a quote.
