Presented by:

Judge Robert E. Bacharach,
United States Court of Appeals for the 10th Circuit, Oklahoma

Judge Robert E. Bacharach recently authored the book Legal Writing: “A Judge’s Perspective on the Science and Rhetoric of the Written Word.” In this presentation he will discuss specific methods lawyers can use to improve their writing.

“Effective legal writing calls not only for artistry but also for scientific understanding. In this synthesis of his experience on the bench and his own research into the science and art of written communications, Robert E. Bacharach, a federal court judge, shares his insights on ways language can determine different responses—and how to use this knowledge to craft a powerful and persuasive message. Legal writing is an important skill that you need from your first day of practice to your last. Judge Bacharach’s approach benefits all lawyers from beginner to experienced.” Jeffrey S. Mandel, Esq., New Jersey State Bar Association.

Judge Bacharach was confirmed a judge for the 10th Circuit in 2013. Prior to that he served for 14 years as a magistrate judge on the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Columbia. He earned his J.D. at Washington University School of Law in 1985.
