

Associate Membership

For Individuals & Healthcare Practitioners

Be part of a national body improving recovery and return-to-work outcomes

ARPA Associate Membership gives you a unique opportunity to stay connected, informed and engaged with Australia's workplace rehabilitation community with benefits such as:

- ✓ Exclusive member discounts for ARPA events and training.
- ✓ Full access to the ARPA webinar library - 24/7 evidence-based learning from experts
- ✓ Professional development tailored to RTW, injury management, employee wellbeing, and employer capability
- ✓ National advocacy, research, insights, and best-practice guidance
- ✓ Networking with industry and leaders across rehabilitation, insurance, employer groups and government
- ✓ Visibility of industry trends, risks and innovations

Who should join?

Associate Membership is ideal for:

- Allied health practitioners working with clients with compensable injuries
- Clinicians interested in workplace rehabilitation trends and developments
- Practitioners wanting to stay informed about policy and scheme changes
- Individuals looking to engage with the wider workplace rehabilitation community

Associate Membership - Individual is open to individuals who are involved in the personal injury industry, and are not employed by a Workplace Rehabilitation Provider who is eligible for membership.

Invest in membership

Individual Associate
Membership

$360 p/year

Prices per annum costs inclusive of GST, pro rata 1 July-30 June.

Scan the code to apply now

