2023 ARRM SPONSORSHIP GUIDE

For more than 50 years, ARRM has been a leading voice and advocate for individuals with disabilities, the dedicated workforce that supports them, and the residential facilities they call home. ARRM couldn't be the advocate and driving force it is without the generous support of our sponsors. As we continue to navigate our post-COVID world, we are excited to offer a number of partnership opportunities to you and organization. Together, we will advance our common goals and better serve individuals with disabilities across the state.

ARRM MISSION

The mission of ARRM is to advocate for, inform, and support Minnesota organizations serving people in the disability and mental health communities.

ARRM members know that by coming together we can better shape the future service models for the people we serve and create sustainability for our members.

We value and understand:

- Our broad range of members and their important work/ innovative services
- Industry coalitions and partnerships that enhance effective service systems
- Sharing a broad base of ideas and information to empower our members and stakeholders.
- Evidence-based analysis to influence industry leaders, policy makers, and the public at-large.
- Planning for and proactively shaping the future.

Membership and Industry Engagement

ARRM's 150+ organizational members and 37 associate members are leading the charge in advocating for a disability services industry that prioritizes helping individuals with disabilities live their best lives. As their member-led trade association, ARRM is proud to represent their size and strength at the State Capitol and all across the state.

100,000+ Employees

Disability Services Day at the Capitol

March 28 | State Capitol, St. Paul, MN

Every year, more than 1,000 disability advocates gather for ARRM's Day at the Capitol, to raise awareness about important disability issues. Among the attendees are direct care workers, mid and executive level provider management, people who receive services, family members, and legislative champions. In 2023, we are returning to the State Capitol once again.

Your sponsorship helps support one of Minnesota's largest advocacy days of the year.
