Executive Council Overview
The Executive Council functions as the Society’s ultimate governing body. As such, it is responsible for setting the strategic direction and annual budget of the Society along with ongoing oversight of Society finances and operations.

Key Responsibilities of the Young Professionals Network Vice President:
• Act as liaison within and between the YPN ASFMRA members and the Executive Council
• Serves as YPN Leadership Committee Liaison
• Serves as a spokesperson for ASFMRA at National and Chapter Meetings
• Participate in Council Meetings and Calls

Minimum Qualifications:
• Accredited ASFMRA Member in good standing under the age of 39

Performance Metrics:
• Attending and contributing to Executive Council calls and meetings
• Achieving goals set forth by the Council
• Insuring financial stability of the organization
• Participating in YPN Leadership Calls and serve as leader of that group
• Participate in YPN events at ASFMRA Education Week and Annual Conference

Opportunities:
• Develop leadership, organizational management, collaboration and communication skills
• Connect and build relationships with rural appraisal and farm management professionals who may become friends, colleagues and prospective employers
• Build reputation as a member who contributes to the profession and gets the job done
• Develop skill and/or knowledge in new areas of rural appraisal and farm management

Selected/Appointed By: Nominating Committee based upon successful completion of the application process

Term Length: Two years

Reports to: Executive Council

Time Commitment: In a typical year, there are three in-person meetings, two of which are typically held in conjunction with the ASFMRA Annual Conference and with Education Week and the third is generally the spring planning meeting. Conference calls are scheduled in all other months. Participation in the one-hour monthly YPN leadership calls as well as other periodic calls relative to YPN activities may take some additional hours. One can expect 8+ days per year out of the office, plus an additional 25 hours for calls per year.
