LOCAL FARM MANAGER RECEIVES D. HOWARD DOANE AWARD

GLENDALE, CO – November 8, 2018 – Darrell R. Limkeman, AFM, ARA, with Mid States Farm Management Company in Ottumwa, IA, has been awarded the D. Howard Doane Award from the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers® (ASFMRA®).

The D. Howard Doane Award is one of the most prestigious awards that ASFMRA bestows and is given annually to a member or non-member who has made an outstanding contribution in the field of agriculture with emphasis on farm management and rural appraisal.

"We are thrilled to confer this award on Darrell. Darrell has a commitment to professionalism and has been an outstanding member of this organization for over 40 years. He has served on our Executive Council, has served as President of the Iowa Chapter and been awarded Farm Manager of the Year, " stated Tim Fevold, AFM, the American Society's national president from Iowa. "By receiving this award, clients, associates and industry peers can easily recognize Darrell's personal investment and dedication to ASFMRA at both the national and local level, as well as his commitment and service to his local community."

The American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers is the largest professional association for rural property land experts in the United States. ASFMRA was founded in 1929 and is the recognized leader in providing education, networking and training for professionals who provide management, valuation and consulting services on agricultural and rural property and assets. ASFMRA's focus is to create and maintain a professionally trained group of Accredited Farm Managers (AFM), Accredited Rural Appraisers (ARA), Real Property Review Appraisers (RPRA), and Accredited Agricultural Consultants (AAC), who are capable of providing expert guidance and assistance to people who own and/or operate agricultural lands and rural properties
