LOCAL FARM MANAGER RECEIVES H.E. STALCUP EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION AWARD

GLENDALE, CO – November 8, 2018 – Corey D. Prins, AFM, with Northwestern Farm Management Company in Marshall, MN, has been presented with the H.E. Stalcup Excellence in Education (Management) Award from the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers® (ASFMRA®).

The H.E. Stalcup Excellence in Education Award is one of the most prestigious awards that ASFMRA bestows. The award recognizes individuals who have contributed knowledge and countless hours toward the advancement of ASFMRA educational offerings.

"We are pleased to confer this award on Corey. Corey has a commitment to professionalism and has been an outstanding member of this organization. He has been an integral part of our Management Education and Accreditation Committee for over ten years serving as both Vice-Chair and Chair. Corey teaches ASFMRA classes and seminars and has contributed countless hours and his expertise to help ASFMRA develop the most up-to-date education for our farm managers," stated Tim Fevold, AFM, the American Society's national president. "By receiving this award, clients, associates and industry peers can easily recognize Corey's personal investment and dedication to ASFMRA, as well as readily acknowledge the wealth of experience and expertise that he has."

The American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers is the largest professional association for rural property land experts in the United States, and is the recognized leader in providing education, networking and training for professionals who provide management, valuation and consulting services on agricultural and rural property and assets. ASFMRA's focus is to create and maintain a professionally trained group of Accredited Farm Managers (AFM), Accredited Rural Appraisers (ARA), Real Property Review Appraisers (RPRA), and Accredited Agricultural Consultants (AAC), who are capable of providing expert guidance and assistance to people who own and/or operate agricultural lands and rural properties.
