Award Descriptions/ Criteria

Please make additional copies of this form for each nomination. Read the description of each award for any special nomination requirements.

D. Howard Doane Award

This award is given to a member or non-member who has made an outstanding contribution in the field of agriculture with emphasis on farm management or rural appraisal. Preference may go to an American Society member.

Meritorious Service in Communication Award

This award acknowledges an individual, company, or association involved in the area of communications that has promoted understanding and goodwill between producers and consumers of agricultural products. It may be awarded to a member or non-member.

Carl F. Hertz Distinguished Service in Agriculture Award

This honor is usually awarded to a non-member in appreciation for distinguished service to agriculture other than directly in the farm management or rural appraisal professions.

Early Career Award – Sponsored by Valley Irrigation

This national award, given annually by the ASFMRA, recognizes an outstanding “early career” member. This award recognizes “early career” members who are making outstanding contributions to their local chapter(s), the ASFMRA, and their local communities during their first 10 years of ASFMRA membership.

Henry A. Long, Jr., Appraiser of the Year – Sponsored by Rabo AgriFinance

*This award recognizes an ARA or RPRA designation member who has made an impact on the profession through involvement in the appraisal education courses, service on professional appraisal boards, community involvement or activities and whose clients, peers and colleagues affirm their professionalism and excellence within the appraisal profession. Nomination should be made using the Henry A. Long, Jr., Appraiser of the Year application form on the ASFMRA web site.

Farm Manager of the Year – Sponsored by Syngenta

This award recognizes farm managers whose dedication and commitment to agriculture have benefited their clients, the American consumer, and our most precious commodity – the land.
