

2026 CHAPTER RECOGNITION PROGRAM

The American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers (ASFMR) understands the key to our overall success is our Chapters!

Strong chapters make for a strong, vibrant and cohesive organization and we want to recognize those Chapters that contribute to our success – so become a Patron Chapter of ASFMR!

CHAPTER RECOGNITION PROGRAM

Your participation in the Chapter Recognition Program begins on October 1, 2025, and ends on September 30, 2026.

Your Chapter will be recognized at the 2026 ASFMRA Annual Conference in Phoenix, Arizona – you will be recognized

- In the on-site signage and program guide
- In promotions for the conference
- With a Patron Chapter banner
- At the Accreditation and Awards Ceremony

Your Chapter will also receive $1,000 to be used to help further growth initiatives in the coming years!

SO, WHAT DOES YOUR CHAPTER NEED TO DO?

A Patron Chapter of ASFMRA has actively contributed to ASFMRA by meeting all the following ten criteria:

- Chapter is in “good standing”
Good standing means the following:
 - Your Chapter has a mission statement
 - Your Chapter has adopted and/or incorporated the ASFMRA logo
 - Ninety percent of non-Student members are current with Ethics and continuing education credit requirements as of October 1, 2026
- Chapter has demonstrated net growth in membership (excluding student members) from October 1, 2025, to September 30, 2026.
- Chapter has developed a program to aid members' professional advancement
- Chapter conducts an annual membership meeting, tour, or social gathering, plus conducts at least one Continuing Education or Qualifying Education offering from October 1, 2025, to September 30, 2026.
- Chapter has a Young Professionals Network (YPN) group that meets at least once per year and strives to provide educational or membership-based presentations.
- Chapter has a broad base of membership serving as its Chapter Leaders and has filled, at minimum, the following positions:
 - President
 - Vice President
 - Membership Chair
 - YPN Committee Chair
 - Education/Program Committee Chair
