- Be familiar with the Education Foundation Bylaws

Performance Metrics:
- Attend and participate in all Committee meetings and conference calls
- Make calls to bring in auction donations
- Assist with set up and execution of the auctions and other fundraising

Benefits:
- Develop leadership, collaboration and communication skills.
- Connect and build relationships with rural property professionals who may become friends and business collaborators, or in some cases, even prospective employees or employers.
- Build a reputation as a member who contributes to the profession and gets the job done.
- Develop skill and knowledge in new areas of rural property expertise.

Selected/Appointed By: Nominating Committee in consultation with President-Elect and Committee Chair based upon successful completion of the application process

Term Length: Three-year term, with ability for re-appointment for an additional term. If a Committee member is appointed either Chair or Vice Chair and he/she is at the end of his/her term(s), the term will be extended to cover the year(s) necessary to cover the Chair or Vice Chair position.

Time Commitment: In a typical year, there is one in-person meeting which is held in conjunction with the ASFMRA Annual Conference. Conference call meetings as warranted. The bulk of work is between August and the end of the Annual Conference (typically at the end of October/beginning of November) when the Auction is being planned and donations requested. Committee member is expected to assist with the Auction set-up at the Annual Conference, as well as assist during both the Silent and Live Auctions. This could consist of a couple of hours of phone conference calls and 2 -10 hours at the Annual Conference depending on the task.

Reports to: Education Foundation Legacy Funding Committee Chair
