The American Society of Appraisers (ASA), American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers (ASFMRA), and The Appraisal Foundation (Foundation) will hold a joint conference on the recently released sixth edition of the Uniform Appraisal Standards for Federal Land Acquisitions, commonly known as the Yellow Book, in Denver, Colorado on June 20-23, 2017.

Participants interested in working for the federal government or who are looking to learn more about the sixth edition of the Yellow Book will have the opportunity to learn and network with chief appraisers from several federal agencies. The conference will feature panels that cover the following topics:

- an overview of changes to the sixth edition of the Yellow Book
- how to become a contract appraiser for the federal government
- what chief appraisers look for in appraisal reports
- litigation and common mistakes

Additionally, participants will be able to take a comprehensive 23-hour Yellow Book course developed by the Foundation. The course will be co-offered by ASA and ASFMRA.

Founded in 1929, the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers[®] (ASFMRA[®]) is the largest professional Society for rural property experts in the United States. Members of ASFMRA provide management, consultation and valuation services, as well as real estate services, on rural and agricultural assets. The focus of ASFMRA is to provide education and professional networking opportunities for members to enable them to provide valuable services to the agricultural community. The land experts who hold membership in ASFMRA work under a professional code of ethics, are required to meet continuing education requirements, and are known as The Most Trusted Rural Property Professionals.
