

American Society of

Military Comptrollers

The National Council, by virtue of the authority vested in it by the Constitution of the Society, hereby grants to the Members of the BUCKEYE Chapter this and authorizes you to hold forth in the City of COLUMBUS, OHIO and its environs.

— § Charter —

You are enjoined to maintain the dignity, repute and respect of the Society and law and order among the Members of the Society therein.

You are further enjoined to extend hospitality, courtesy and comfort to any and all Members of the Society who may sojourn within your jurisdiction.

Notice is hereby given that, upon the instant of violation of this trust, this Charter shall be null and void and no longer of any value to you whatsoever.

To all these things you are held to act within the bounds of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society and the advice of the National Council; and your associates and successors are held to do likewise.

To this we set our hands and affix the Seal of the Society this 17th day of July 1990, at Washington, District of Columbia.
