

2026 ASPRS International Technical Symposium

Sponsorship Opportunities

The 2026 ASPRS International Technical Symposium will be held October 5-8, 2026. The conference will be held virtually. This format is an attractive, convenient presentation venue for remote sensing professionals globally who are unable to travel. This year, ASPRS will be offering a select number of sponsorship opportunities.

☐ Vendor Spotlight/Product Demo $1500*/$1650

Each Product/Project Showcase will include: a 30-minute time slot available during conference week, listing in conference program, and list of Product/Project Showcase attendees supplied at the end of the conference. Please coordinate date/time slot with sales representative.

☐ General Sponsor $500*/$550

Each General Sponsor opportunity will include: logo on program materials, name in the ASPRS weekly newsletter, 5-10 minute pre-recorded presentation to be played during break and available on ProLearn, option of hosting the session following your presentation. Please select your preferred time slot from the table below.

☐ Session Sponsor $250*/$275

Each Single Session Sponsor opportunity will include: logo on program materials, in the ASPRS weekly newsletter, logo on the session opening slide and sponsor acknowledgement, and the option to represent your company during the session as a moderator. Please select your preferred time slot from the table below.
