Make the most of your ASPRS experience online by taking these steps to allow others to find and connect with you, engage in meaningful conversations about the topics that matter to you, and build your presence in the online community.

GETTING STARTED

Your login credentials should be the same as your credentials for MYASPRS. When you go to https://community.asprs.org/home, click "Sign In". You can reset your password by clicking on the "Forgot Password" link. If you don't have an account, click "Create an account". If you need to update your email address, contact office@asprs.org.

LOG IN:

Tell us about yourself! Is this what you really look like? Upload a profile picture and add some information to your profile so it is easier to find and connect with like-minded peers.

Customize your profile settings: While on your profile page, click on the tab for My Account. Here you can set up how you want to receive emails from the community (Community Notifications), how much of your profile you want visible to other members (Privacy Settings), design the signature area that appears under your discussion posts (Discussion Signature) and more.

Email Delivery Options: Your frequency can be in the form of a daily or weekly digest - a single email each day summarizing the hottest topics in your community, or stay informed in a real time with instant alerts.

Build Your Contact List

Select Directory from the top navigation bar to find friends and colleagues belonging to ASPRS. Creating a contact list helps identify relationships and build searchable networks.
JOIN COMMUNITIES

search for Communities you belong:
1. Click on the tab for Communities. You can search community you belong - such as the Region you live in or Chose "All Community Types" and then "All Communities" shown so you can see different types of community groups we have.

2. Click "Join" to the community you wish to join!
*Please note that some of the community groups are for specific members only.
Posting a message:
1. Select "Add" next to the Latest Discussions or "Post New Message" if on the Discussions page.

2. You can upload attachments (attachments will automatically be added to the specified community library).

3. You can @mention specific ASPRS members.
Scheduled posts and drafts can be found under the "My Contributions" tab of your profile.

You can save a draft of the post. The system will also automatically start saving once you start adding content. You can also schedule a post to go live at a certain time. To access your scheduled posts and drafts, go to Profile > My Contributions tab > List of Contributions.
You can ask a question or start a discussion by clicking "Ask a Question" widget from your home page.
1. Choose a community you want to post your question in.
2. Choose your thread - Open-ended Discussion or Question to be answered.

1. To add the Resource Library, select Library from the tab.
2. To add a new library item, select "Create Entry". Complete the required fields on the library entry form: Title, Library, Description, and select an Entry Type.
Now, you are ready to be a part of our community! Say hello to your peers and tell everyone a little bit about yourself.

Share ideas and spread your passion, by starting a discussion. Don't forget to use the Library! Give your feedback by answering other members' questions.

We hope you maximize professional and group networking!

If you have any questions or problems with this new platform, go to Help which is located under Quick Links, or contact office@asprs.org
