

Virtual Summit on Welcoming Environment[®]: From Conversation to Action

Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity (IDE): Implications for Association Leadership

Sharon E. Moss, PhD., CAE
President and Chief Research Officer
ASAE Research Foundation

July 22, 2020

Intersection of Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity and Association Leadership

- Societal Impact
- ForesightWorks

DIVERSITY

EQUITY

INCLUSION

Intersection of Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity and Association Leadership

- The current state of board practices

Intersection of Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity and Association Leadership

- Models for establishing, sustaining and measuring commitment

- What are some of the barriers that inhibit implementation of effective strategies?

- What are some of the consequences of not having effective strategies?

Intersection of Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity and Association Leadership

- Influence throughout the layers of the organization and the industry or profession served

- Rate the extent to which an organization's commitment to IDE should be reflected in its metrics of board performance.

- Rate the extent to which a culture of foresight should influence the application of a model for IDE.

Intersection of Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity and Association Leadership

- Alignment with organization's culture of foresight

- Supportive evidence

- Effective model(s)

- Practical application

THANK YOU!

Sharon E. Moss, PhD, CAE

President and Chief Research Officer

ASAE Research Foundation

smoss@asaecenter.org

202-626-2745

Upcoming webinars and virtual events:

7/27/20 – Addressing the Triple Pandemic Threat: Racism, Economy and COVID-19

7/29/20 – How to Transform Physical Event Sponsorship Benefits to Virtual Event Benefits

8/12/20 - Association Management Essentials: Finance for the Non-Finance Professional

8/20/20 - Preparing For Your Next Crisis When You're in the Middle of the Current One