THE ASSOCIATION OF SHELTER VETERINARIANS’ GUIDELINES FOR STANDARDS OF CARE IN ANIMAL SHELTERS

Second Edition - December 2022
It is estimated that there are between 15,000 and 20,000 animal welfare organizations in the US alone.

Some of these groups have a medical staff, most do not, but all depend on The Association of Shelter Veterinarians.
A FEW OF ASV’S PROGRAMS INCLUDE:

- GUIDELINES FOR STANDARDS OF CARE IN ANIMAL SHELTERS
- VETERINARY MEDICAL CARE GUIDELINES FOR SPAY/NEUTER PROGRAMS
- THE JOURNAL OF SHELTER MEDICINE AND COMMUNITY ANIMAL HEALTH
- DEVELOPMENT OF A SPECIALTY IN SHELTER MEDICINE
- STUDENT CHAPTERS

BECAUSE MEDICAL CARE IS A FOUNDBATIONAL ELEMENT OF OPERATING AN ANIMAL WELFARE AGENCY, having a positive, successful relationship with a veterinarian improves an organization's outcomes. By supporting those practicing in the shelter medicine space, private practice and shelter medical staff alike, ASV and our partners are a VITAL ELEMENT IN HELPING HOMELESS ANIMALS.
WHY PARTNER WITH US?

1. ASV is recognized as a leading organization among animal welfare leaders. Partnering with us puts your brand in front of the decision makers.

2. Because ASV is a recognized leader, promoting our partnership to your peers, colleagues and clients will carry significant weight in showing your dedication to helping animals in need.

3. The Association of Shelter Veterinarian's reach is global. Partnering with ASV allows you to support organizations worldwide rather than single agencies.
