2022-2023
CURRICULUM GUIDANCE
ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY
PROGRAMS IN HEALTH ADMINISTRATION
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction............................................................................................................................. 1

Topic 1: Considerations for, and relationships between, competencies, learning objectives, and content, including strategies to ensure all three remain up to date with changes in industry ......................................................................................................................... 2

Topic 2: Considerations for levels of learning, and undergraduate vs graduate education ................................................................................................................................. 6

Topic 3: Considerations for, and relationships between, competencies, teaching and learning methods, and student assessment methods ............................................................................................................. 11

Topic 4: Considerations for communication with and engagement of students, including individual feedback, advising, mentoring, etc. ................................................................................................................. 17

Topic 5: In classroom, distance, and hybrid delivery considerations ........................................ 25

Topic 6: Considerations for selection of assignments (including reading and other pre-work) that align with competencies, content, and levels of learning ................................................................. 30

Topic 7: Course and curriculum foundations, sequencing, and integration .................................. 34

Topic 8: Considerations of cross-cutting content: professionalism, interprofessional education and practice, ethics, DEIB, disparities, and social responsibility ................................................................. 38

Topic 9: Consideration of school/college home - health professions, public health, business, public policy/administration, arts and sciences, etc. ........................................................................................................... 43

Topic 10: Considerations related to faculty research and its role in supporting and enriching content and classroom experiences ......................................................................................................................... 47

Topic 11: Considerations of practice and practitioners .................................................................. 50

Index.......................................................................................................................................... 54

Acknowledgements.................................................................................................................. 58