

AUPHA

Now and into the future

The Association of University Programs in Health Administration (AUPHA) provides health administration programs and faculty visibility, connection, and value, now and into the future.

Distinction

AUPHA offers many ways for programs, faculty, and students to be nationally recognized for their achievements.

- AUPHA Certified Undergraduate Programs are recognized for having withstood the rigors of peer review.
- Awards, scholarships, and prizes recognize programs, faculty, and students.

Program

- Award for Engagement with AUPHA, New and Existing Programs

Faculty

- John D. Thompson Prize
- Gary L. Filerman Prize for Educational Leadership
- Glandon Family Scholarship for Advancement of Healthcare Management Education
- Baxter International William B. Graham Prize for Health Services Research
- Award for Faculty Service to AUPHA

- Quint Studer Prize for Teaching Excellence
- Teaching Excellence Award for Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Belonging, and Social Justice
- Teaching Excellence Award for Healthcare Management and Leadership
- Teaching Excellence Award for Health Policy

Students

- Bachrach Family Scholarship for Excellence in Healthcare Administration
- Bugbee-Falk Book Award
- Corris Boyd Scholars Program
- David A. Winston Scholarship/Fellowship
- Foster G. McGaw Scholarship
- Upsilon Phi Delta Scholarship Program

Connection

Members consistently rate the ability to make connections and share with peers as one of the greatest benefits of AUPHA.

- AUPHA's network of nearly 300 health administration programs and 2,800 faculty connects members to institutions and health administration professionals throughout the world.
- Virtual Forums allow members to share knowledge and expertise in thirteen topic-specific Faculty Forums, the special COVID-19 Forum, and the general Open Forum.
- Committees, task forces and advisory groups give members the opportunity to help shape the association.
- Webinars connect members to experts presenting the most current information on trending topics.
- In-person conferences and other events are the best way to meet other active and engaged health administration education professionals.
- Connect with prospective students through the AUPHA Online Directory and free, customizable marketing videos and brochures.

AUPHA in the Future

Below are just a few initiatives coming soon:

- A revised Body of Knowledge (BOK) that defines the core content of health administration and policy education across 25 domains.
- The Art of Teaching Institute to provide opportunities that support the advancement of excellence in the science and art of teaching.
- The AUPHA Leadership Academy to provide leadership training that advances the competencies of program management.

Explore AUPHA and find the many ways AUPHA can help your program grow and thrive.

AUPHA

Value

AUPHA strives to bring value for every dues dollar. Program membership extends member access and benefits to all faculty affiliated with the program.

Members receive at no additional cost:

- Registration for most AUPHA sponsored webinars.
- Access to all digital issues of the Journal of Health Administration Education.
- The Exchange digital newsletter.
- Access to copies of curriculum, syllabi, and case studies shared by members.

- COVID-19 resources such as special town halls, webinars, tool kits and case studies.
- Marketing materials.

Members receive discounted rates on:

- AUPHA conferences and workshops.
- Job postings in the Career Center.
- Health Administration Press books and exams.

For more information about AUPHA program membership, contact Chris Anne Sanyer, Director of Membership, at csanyer@aupha.org.