

2024-2025 CURRICULUM GUIDANCE

ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROGRAMS
IN HEALTH ADMINISTRATION

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction.....	3
Topic 1:	4
Considerations for, and relationships between, competencies, learning objectives, and content, including strategies to ensure all three remain up to date with changes in industry
Topic 2:	9
Considerations for levels of learning, and undergraduate vs graduate education
Topic 3:	11
Considerations for, and relationships between, competencies, teaching and learning methods, and student assessment methods
Topic 4:	17
Considerations for communication with and engagement of students, including individual feedback, advising, mentoring, etc.
Topic 5:	25
In classroom, distance, and hybrid delivery considerations
Topic 6:	30
Considerations for selection of assignments (including reading and other pre-work) that align with competencies, content, and levels of learning
Topic 7:	34
Course and curriculum foundations, sequencing, and integration
Topic 8:	38
Considerations of cross-cutting content: professionalism, interprofessional education and practice, ethics, DEIB, disparities, and social responsibility
Topic 9:	43
Consideration of school/college home - health professions, public health, business, public policy/administration, arts and sciences, etc.
Topic 10:	47
Considerations related to faculty research and its role in supporting and enriching content and classroom experiences
Topic 11:	50
Considerations of practice and practitioners
Topic 12:	54
Considerations of the integration, implementation, and ethics of generative artificial intelligence and large language models in health administration education
Index.....	58
Acknowledgements.....	58