

Special Seminar

From Practice to Academia: Becoming a Practitioner Scholar

In-person in Houston, Texas on Sunday, March 1, 2026

3-4:30PM Central time

1.5 FACHE Credits
1 AUPHA LA Credit

This course bridges professional practice and academia, equipping leaders to transition into academic roles by offering a comprehensive introduction to higher education. Interactive discussion will help participants gain confidence to contribute meaningfully in roles such as guest lecturer, adjunct or full-time faculty, executive-in-residence, mentor, preceptor, or advisory board member—while remaining grounded in their professional expertise.

Want more time to discuss this content?

Sign up for the full course, which will be offered virtually over several dates in late March/early April.

Learn more at
[https://tinyurl.com/
LA-MARCH-25](https://tinyurl.com/LA-MARCH-25)

Discussion Topics

- ✓ Academic culture, faculty roles, and tenure systems
- ✓ The practitioner scholar's role and pathways to scholarly engagement
- ✓ Building supportive academic networks and collaborations
- ✓ Strategies for sharing scholarly work through publishing and presenting in-person, in print, and on digital platforms
- ✓ Evidence-based teaching practices and course design
- ✓ Effective mentorship techniques for peers and learners
- ✓ Financial and organizational dynamics of higher education institutions

Register for the Seminar at <https://tinyurl.com/LA-MARCH-1>