

Quint Studer Bio

Quint is a teacher at heart. In fact, he began his leadership journey working with special needs children, a job he loved and held for ten years. He entered the healthcare industry in 1984 as a Community Relations Representative. He then went on to hold leadership positions at Mercy Health System in WI and Holy Cross Hospital in Chicago, IL, where their initiatives in patient care led to their winning Hospital Magazine's Great Comeback award. In 1996, he became president of Baptist Hospital in Pensacola, FL, leading that organization to the top 1 percent of hospitals nationwide in patient and employee satisfaction.

In 2000, he formed the Studer Group, a healthcare consulting firm, which was awarded the 2010 Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award. By the time the firm was sold in 2015, it had 250 employees and had helped more than a thousand healthcare organizations move toward higher performance. Through his work at Studer Group, he served as a role model for hundreds of CEOs and other administrative leaders around the county.

He spent decades working to make healthcare and education better. Inc. magazine named Studer its Master of Business, making him the only healthcare leader to have ever won this award. Modern Healthcare named him one of the 100 Most Powerful People in Healthcare for his work on institutional healthcare improvement. Modern Healthcare, along with its sister publication Advertising Age, also honored him with the first Healthcare Marketing Visionary IMPACT award in 2014. Around the same time Becker's Hospital Review recognized him as one of the 40 smartest people in healthcare.

He was also a member of the AUPHA Board of Directors during the late 2000's.

Quint is the author of ten books. His first title, BusinessWeek bestseller Hardwiring Excellence, is one of the most read leadership books ever written for healthcare. More than a million and a half copies are in circulation and it's still one of the bestselling books in healthcare. Two of his other books—Results That Last and his newest title The Busy Leader's Handbook—became Wall Street Journal bestsellers.
