

The Bugbee-Falk Book Award was established in honor of the extraordinary contributions of Mr. George Bugbee and Dr. Isidore S. Falk to the development of health services administration education. The award consists of a number of books from the field of health administration and general management donated to students at member programs. The books serve as a symbol of the selected students' academic success, the need for continued learning, and their commitment to excellence.

Students at these AUPHA member programs will receive the Bugbee-Falk Books for 2022:

Appalachian State University	Clarkson University, Capital Region Campus	Franciscan Missionaries of Our Lady University
Army-Baylor University	Clayton State University	George Mason University
AT Still University	Colorado Technical University	Georgetown University
Auburn University	Concordia University, Irvine	Georgia Southern University
Barry University	Creighton University	Hampton University
Bay Path University	Dalhousie University	Howard University
Baylor University	Des Moines University	Idaho State University
Belmont Abbey College	Dillard University	Iowa State University
Belmont University	Drexel University	Ithaca College
Boston University Questrom School of Business	Eastern Kentucky University	Liberty University
Boston University School of Public Health	Eastern Michigan University	Loyola University Chicago
California State University, Long Beach	Fayetteville State University	Old Dominion University
California State University, Northridge	Florida A&M University	Southern Illinois University
Carnegie Mellon University	Florida Atlantic University	The George Washington University
Central Michigan University	Florida Gulf Coast University	The University of Alabama at Birmingham
	Florida International University	