

Teri G. Fontenot

Teri Fontenot is a high-impact strategist, visionary and C-suite executive whose professional career was in an industry where disruption and risk are the norm. She is known for her innovative thinking, leading beyond the status quo, working collaboratively and leveraging her extensive industry network. Teri is passionate about adding shareholder value through effective governance and strategic direction.

Teri's professional career was concentrated in health system CFO and CEO roles. She now serves as an independent director on several corporate boards of publicly traded, equity-backed, and private companies. As an SEC-qualified financial expert, she has chaired the Audit Committees of LHC Group, AMN Healthcare, Sixth District Federal Reserve Bank, and Hibernia Mutual Funds. She has also chaired the boards of many nonprofit boards, such as the American Hospital Association.

Teri has received numerous prestigious honors for her work in women's health, leadership, and board governance. She is the recipient of the 2020 Distinguished Service Award—American Hospital Association's highest honor; and named as one of WomenInc 'Most Influential Corporate Board Directors'; Modern Healthcare's 'Top 25 Women in Healthcare'; and twice to the list of the 'Top 100 Most Influential People in Healthcare'. She is an inductee of the Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame and the LSU College of Business Hall of Distinction in recognition of her achievements.
