

Ryan Moran (he/him) currently serves as Deputy Secretary for Health Care Financing and Medicaid Director for the Maryland Department of Health. Ryan has also previously served as Acting Secretary of Health at the Maryland Department of Health in early 2025. He currently serves as a member of the board of directors of the National Association of Medicaid Directors, which seeks to elevate and support 56 state and territory Medicaid programs in providing coverage to those they serve. Previously, Ryan served as Chief Executive Officer, Whitman-Walker Health System, a community-centered enterprise committed to advancing social justice and equality through health. Ryan has also served as Assistant Vice President, Care Transformation for MedStar Health's four hospitals in the Baltimore region.

Ryan holds a Doctor of Public Health degree (DrPH) at the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health where his research explored peer recovery specialist interventions to address opioid use and reduce acute care costs. Ryan holds Bachelor of Science degrees in public policy and business administration from the University of Charleston and a Master in Health Services Administration from Xavier University.