Edward Schumacher is Professor and Chair of the Department of Health Care Administration at Trinity University. He has thirty years of experience teaching health care economics, operations management, and data analysis. For the past 11 years he has served as Program Director for Trinity’s residential and executive Master’s programs.

Along with his colleague Patrick Shay, Dr. Schumacher has led efforts to thread innovation throughout the program’s curriculum. In 2022, the program was awarded the inaugural CAHME/George and Regi Herzlinger Innovation Education Award, primarily for the work that he and Patrick Shay did with their internal innovation curriculum (Tiger Tank) and Trinity’s national Healthcare PRISm Pitch Competition.

Dr. Schumacher received his Ph.D. in economics from Florida State University; and M.A. and B.A. from the University of North Carolina, Greensboro. He was awarded the University of North Carolina’s Board of Governors Distinguished Award for Teaching.
