

Congratulations on being ranked in the top XX in your class! Because of your academic performance, your College of Business would like to recognize you for your outstanding achievement. You are cordially invited to meet Beta Gamma Sigma Faculty Advisors to receive a personal invitation to become a member of Beta Gamma Sigma (BGS), the premier international honor society for the highest performing students at top 5% of business schools in the world (those with AACSB accreditation).

As a lifetime BGS member, you will be recognized as the “best in business” and gain access to the exclusive networking opportunities, programs and benefits that BGS has to offer. More information about Beta Gamma Sigma and the benefits of membership will be shared when you are presented with your personal invitation. More information about BGS can be found at <https://betagammasigma.org/about/what-is-bgs>.

Invitation Details:

Date:

Time:

Location:

If you have any questions or are not available during one of these times and would like to join Beta Gamma Sigma, please contact your chapter at XXXX.