

Beta Gamma Sigma Lifetime Membership Eligibility

Induction Type	General Eligibility Criteria 1	General Eligibility Criteria 2	General Eligibility Criteria 3
Undergraduate/Baccalaureate Members (Sophomores, Juniors Seniors)	Completed at least the first term of their 2 nd /Sophomore Year	Rank within the top 10% of their class
Masters/Graduate	Completed half of their program	Rank within the top 20% of their class
Doctoral/ Post Graduate	Successfully defended their dissertation
Faculty	Has previously earned their PhD from an institution currently accredited by AACSB	OR is a tenured faculty member of the school accredited by AACSB	OR has been on the faculty of the accredited school for at least 6 years
University Administration	Business School Dean or Associate/Assistant Deans as well as University Presidents, Provosts, Chief Academic or Accreditation Officer are automatically eligible regardless of degree or alma mater
Chapter Advisors	Qualify for membership either via the faculty or doctoral induction type or following the submission of a letter of recommendation by the Dean to BGS Global HQ
Masters Second Recognition	Became a BGS member while pursuing a previous degree	Meets all aforementioned eligibility requirement for Masters/Graduate members
Doctoral Second Recognition	Became a BGS member while pursuing a previous degree	Has successfully defended his/her dissertation
Transfer Students (Undergraduate or Graduate Level)	Must have completed the equivalent of one year of course work with the chapter inviting him/her to join BGS	Meet all aforementioned eligibility requirements for their induction type

Beta Gamma Sigma Lifetime Membership Fee

Induction Type	Standard Induction Fee
Baccalaureate (Sophomore, Junior, Senior)	$75 USD
Masters	$75 USD
Doctoral	$0 USD
Faculty	$75 USD
University Administrator / Chapter Advisor	$75 USD
Masters Second Recognition	$10 USD
Doctoral Second Recognition	$0 USD