IBS Code of Conduct

Date: January, 2020

Author: Geert Verbeke

The International Biometric Society (IBS) highly values professional and appropriate behavior at all times. This involves scientific and ethical integrity, as well as respectful conduct towards others regardless of gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearances, race, religion (or lack thereof) or beliefs.

Members of IBS, as well as everyone employed on behalf of IBS or attending events organized by IBS are expected to endorse this position and they agree to be considerate in speech and actions, to respect others, and to refrain from demeaning, discriminatory, or harassing behavior and speech, at all times.
