The Connecticut CCIM Chapter consists of CCIM Designees, CCIM Candidates, Associate members and Sponsors. Members are involved in all aspects of commercial real estate including brokerage, property and asset management, consulting, ownership, teaching, and appraisal.

The Chapter serves as a focal point where members can exchange ideas and properties, network, continue their educational development and assist each other in finding solutions to today's challenges that face commercial practitioners. The Chapter also serves as a forum to network and service real estate prospects needs, both locally and nationally, doing business in Connecticut and throughout the country.

The Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) is recognized as the best in the business. Each CCIM Designee has successfully completed a graduate level curriculum comprised of 200 classroom hours which include financial, user decision and investment analysis. The CCIM is an invaluable resource to the real estate investor and among elite corps of professionals across the globe who hold the CCIM Designation — “the PhD of commercial real estate”

The Connecticut CCIM Chapter, a local branch of the CCIM Institute, and affiliate of the National Association of REALTORS. As a member of the local Chapter, you will have access to a number of resources designed to enhance your career and business opportunities. These include:

Networking: Regular meetings and events allow for members to gather together to directly discuss and trade potential business opportunities and share market knowledge. Additionally, Chapter email broadcast capabilities allow for members to quickly disseminate information to fellow members.

Scholarships: As a member of the Chapter, you are eligible for Scholarship grants will be allocated in the coming years from the Chapters Education Scholarship Fund.

Knowledge: Professional development seminars, advanced educational programs, email alerts and guest speakers provide members with the tools and information to keep that competitive edge.

Savings: Chapter members enjoy substantial discounts on all Chapter sponsored programs and events.

Recognition: Inclusion in the local membership directory on the Chapter web site which is available to owners, investors, principals and related professionals.
