

Jennifer Henry, CFA, FRM

Jennifer joined STANLIB Multi-Manager/INN8 Invest in 2014 as a Portfolio Manager. She joined from the sell-side having worked at Standard Bank Group Securities and Nedgroup Securities as an Equity Analyst, and was highly rated in covering Media, Electronic and IT stocks for a number of years. Early on in 2016, she joined the EXCO of STANLIB Multi-Manager/INN8 Invest, driving a strong people and culture change within the business. As of 2017, she headed up the portfolio management for majority of the business's collective investment schemes. and at the end of 2019, Jennifer took up of the role of Head of Strategic Investments and Manager Research. This includes overseeing the portfolio management of Liberty's Alternative asset portfolios. Jennifer has been appointed to Deputy Chief Investment Officer since March 2023 and is jointly responsible for the governance and oversight of STANLIB Multi-Manager/INN8 Invest's investment process and performance.

Jennifer obtained a B Comm Honours, is a CFA Charterholder and a certified Financial Risk Manager through the Global Association of Risk Professionals. She has been a board member of the CFA Society of South Africa since 2017 and has been president of the society since September 2021. Jennifer is passionate about ethical investment leadership, investment education, and diversity and inclusion.