

Kelebogile is an illustrious figure in the financial services realm, boasting an impressive 28-year journey of remarkable achievements and impactful leadership. A trailblazer at heart, she founded Prowess Investment Managers seventeen years ago, breaking barriers by pioneering a Black female-owned and managed investment firm in South Africa.

At Prowess, Kelebogile orchestrates a symphony of investment solutions spanning fixed income, multi-asset strategies, infrastructure and development funds, and liability-driven investments (LDI). With her seasoned expertise, she navigates traditional and private markets, unwavering in her commitment to deliver unparalleled value for her clients.

Currently donning the dual hats of Chief Executive and Chief Investment Officer, Kelebogile is not only a prudent investment specialist but also a fervent advocate for talent and leadership development. She champions transformation initiatives within the investment landscape, envisioning a future where empowered women flourish in decision-making roles, enriching both the industry and the broader South African community.

In recognition of her indelible contributions, in 2023 Kelebogile was bestowed with the prestigious Successful Woman Entrepreneur in Financial Services award by ABSIP-FSTC, serving as a testament to her unwavering resilience and enduring commitment to excellence.

Kelebogile boasts an impressive 28-year journey of remarkable achievements and impactful leadership in the Financial Services sector. A trailblazer at heart, she founded Prowess Investment Managers 17 years ago, breaking barriers by pioneering a Black female-owned and managed investment firm in South Africa.

At Prowess, she orchestrates a symphony of investment solutions spanning fixed income, multi-asset strategies, infrastructure, development and liability-driven investments. With her seasoned expertise, she navigates traditional and private markets, unwavering in her commitment to deliver unparalleled value for clients.

As CEO & CIO, she is not only a prudent investment specialist but also a fervent advocate for talent and leadership development. She champions transformation initiatives, envisioning a future where empowered women flourish in all respects.

In recognition of her indelible contributions, in 2023 she was bestowed with the prestigious Successful Woman Entrepreneur in Financial Services Award by ABSIP-FSTC, a testament to her unwavering resilience and enduring commitment to excellence.