

Biographies

Rehana Khan

Deputy Head of SA Equity & Multi-Asset
Joined the firm in 2020
Joined the industry in 2008

Rehana is a deputy head of SA Equity & Multi-Asset within the 4Factor team at Ninety One. She has portfolio management responsibilities for the General Equity and Balanced strategies as well as the Worldwide Flexible Strategy.

Prior to joining the firm Rehana spent eleven years working for Prudential Investment Managers (currently known as M&G) and was a Director on PIMSA Institutional Board, Head of Equity Research, Portfolio Manager in their Select team and an analyst covering mining, retail and general financials sectors. Before this she worked for Deloitte firstly doing her accounting articles and secondly as a manager of the Special Services Group. .

Rehana holds a Bachelor of Commerce in Accounting degree and a post graduate diploma in Accounting from the University of Cape Town. She is also a Chartered Accountant.