

Julia McDonough

Julia McDonough, JD, MA, Ph.D., joined the Professional Conduct Team at CFA Institute in May 2010. As a Senior Investigator and Director, Julia investigates potential violations of the CFA Institute Code and Standards and brings matters to disciplinary hearings. Before joining CFA Institute, Julia worked in Washington, DC, and New York-based law firms. There, she defended individuals and companies in cases involving U.S. and international securities regulators and criminal authorities, counseled boards of directors, and assisted firms registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission in enhancing their compliance systems. Before entering the legal profession, Julia was a University professor specializing in U.S. history and gender studies.
