

MUNRO & PATRICK

Meet Munro & Patrick, a sought after power duo hailing from Saskatchewan, uniting the talents of Heidi Munro and Scott Patrick. Individually, they each have a deep history as well known and outstanding performers. Renowned for their relentless dedication, they've solidified themselves as two of the most hard-working artists in the province. Their performances are charged with an irresistible stage chemistry that, when combined with their fervent, high energy, has propelled them to the forefront.

Munro & Patrick's performances are a captivating experience whether delivered with the simplicity of their voices and an acoustic guitar or bolstered by the support of an A-list band. Audiences are spellbound by moments of whispered intensity, as the duo masterfully weaves together a mesmerizing tapestry of "blues-country-rock" fusion.

This past summer Munro & Patrick hit the road on their first Western Canadian tour performing over 30 dates this summer, Heidi and Scott treat audiences to a mix of original tracks from their acclaimed album, "Give Me Your Rain," as well as beloved favorites that invite listeners to join in on the chair dancing and sing-along fun. Their performances reflect a deep connection to their musical roots, ensuring an unforgettable experience for all who attend.
