CFA Society Austin Membership Agreement

Members of CFA Society Austin are bound by CFA Institute's Code of Ethics and must read and agree to the following:

- Act with integrity, competence, diligence, and respect, and in an ethical manner with the public, clients, prospective clients, employers, employees, colleagues in the investment profession, and other participants in the global capital markets.
- Place the integrity of the investment profession and the interests of clients above their own personal interests.
- Use reasonable care and exercise independent professional judgment when conducting investment analysis, making investment recommendations, taking investment actions, and engaging in other professional activities.
- Practice and encourage others to practice in a professional and ethical manner that will reflect credit on themselves and the profession.
- Promote the integrity and viability of the global capital markets for the ultimate benefit of society.
- Maintain and improve their professional competence and strive to maintain and improve the competence of other investment professionals

1. I have read, understand, and agree to comply with the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, Bylaws, and Rules of Procedure ("Governing Documents") and other rules and regulations established by CFA Institute as amended from time to time.
2. I acknowledge the importance to CFA Institute and CFA Austin Society of its reputation and goodwill and to the public of maintaining high, uniform standards of quality in the services provided. In the event that this license terminates in accordance with the terms of this Membership Agreement, I will not be entitled to any refund of any fees already paid or owing as of the date of termination.
3. I hereby acknowledge that all of the information I have provided to CFA Society is true, correct, and complete in all respects.

 I have read, understood, and agree to the terms of the CFA Society Austin Membership Agreement.
