

ANALYST JOB POSTING

August 2025

ABOUT US

DiPerna is a boutique investment banking firm that specializes in structured and public finance. We assist both private sector and public-sector clients in identifying and structuring sources of capital for development projects; often leveraging development incentives to strengthen the project's return on investment. Since its inception in 2011, DiPerna has structured and closed over 500 transactions for $1.5 billion+ in capital investment. With a focus on economic development, master-planned developments, and public infrastructure, DiPerna desires to grow its team by hiring a full-time financial analyst position (the "Analyst"). The Analyst will provide support to senior bankers and will have the opportunity to advance towards a junior investment banker. This is an exciting opportunity for a driven individual to gain valuable experience in the world of investment banking.

THE ROLE

DiPerna is seeking a full-time analyst who will assist senior bankers by compiling financial models, financing term sheets, investor and rating agency presentations, bond proformas, offering documents, summary memoranda, pitch materials, among other key deliverables. The Analyst will collaborate with team members to execute and manage transactions, including credit evaluation, deal structuring, and closing coordination. Analyst will also perform key research and review functions, monitoring of the capital markets, and lead certain aspects of a financial closing.

The Analyst must be well-organized and highly detail-oriented.

Qualifications

- Undergraduate or graduate degree in finance, economics, mathematics, business, or a related field;
- Strong analytical and quantitative skills with the ability to interpret complex financial data;
- Proficient in Microsoft Excel (on a scale of 10 must be at least an 8);
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills, with the ability to present ideas and information effectively;
- Effective analytical skills with a problem-solving mindset;
- Comprehensive knowledge of financial statements, including balance sheets, income, and cash flow statements;
- Project management skills with the ability to coordinate and progress multiple tasks on varying timelines;
- Ability to work collaboratively in a team-oriented environment while also independently managing assigned responsibility.

Compensation and Benefits

The Analyst will receive a competitive base salary (commensurate with experience level) + performance bonuses. Minimum salary of $70,000.

DiPerna will provide and pay the premiums for Health, Dental, and Eye coverage as desired.

Interested applicants should email their resume and cover letter to jhuber@dipernafinancial.com and jmaus@dipernafinancial.com.
