Research Analyst

Description

- Must have specific technical input for research, data compilation and analysis
- Have sound knowledge of economic affairs and corporate developments
- Enjoys researching and analyzing industries and predict their future performance/trends
- Well versed in report writing, presentations and financial modelling
- Adequate presentation skills to present research reports to audience within and outside the organization

Requirements

- MBA from LUMS, IBA or ACCA (The candidate must have passed CFA Level 2)
- CA Inter (articles completed)
- At least 1 year work experience of research function in financial institutions

What we expect from you

- Preparation of Sectors and other Research Reports on a defined frequency
- Ensure strict compliance of tasks with external and internal deadlines
- Stay updated of the latest developments on economic and Industry level and prepare news insights, as and when needed
- Develop and present Industrial and Economic dashboards on defined frequencies
- Take ownership and charge of any other activities assigned by the Team Lead

Location: Lahore
Email: laiba.riaz@pacra.com