

Assistant Manager Financial Analysis

Zong 5G • Islamabad, Islāmābād, Pakistan (On-site)

About the job

Job Purpose:

- The Assistant Manager Financial Analysis will perform end-to-end pre-investment financial analysis to assess whether anticipated investment benefits are achieved. The role will also conduct comprehensive post evaluation investment analysis to compare projected and actual outcomes, identify gaps, and provide insights to strengthen future investment planning and efficiency. The role will also provide comprehensive financial analysis for the investment strategy formulation covering both existing and new business requirements as well as strategic projects across multiple domains.

Job Responsibilities:

- Possess strong understanding and conduct comprehensive end-to-end financial analysis to evaluate whether the expected benefits of investments have been realized.
- Provide comprehensive financial analysis to support investment strategy formulation.
- Conduct end-to-end financial analysis for all investment projects, including new and expansion projects planned for the year, incorporating adjustments based on updated cost factors.
- Evaluate and support the financial analysis of the existing and new business requirements, including the assessment of ROI.
- Conduct financial evaluations and analyses of USF (Universal Service Fund) lots in collaboration with stakeholders.
- Provide support in conducting pre-post investment financial analysis of COW (Cell on Wheels) sites based on the requirements in coordination with stakeholders.
- Perform post investment project financial evaluations for all delivered projects in compliance with existing policies and processes.
- Continuously optimize the ROI evaluation process by researching and implementing innovative evaluation methodologies.
- Monitoring and maintaining a centralized database containing the pre-post financial evaluation results of all evaluated projects.
- Support the Line Manager in the efficient execution and timely delivery of tasks assigned by the management.
- Proactively carry out compliance risk identification and evaluation, timely report compliance risks, and take actions to prevention and control compliance risk.
- Ensure strict compliance of existing policies and processes and support the internal and external audit activities and management.

- Act as a liaison among for effective inter- and intra-departmental coordination proactively, ensuring timely documentation and efficient management of trackers and databases.

Eligibility Criteria (Education, Knowledge, Experience and Skills):

Education:

- Minimum bachelor's degree in a financial discipline or related field, MBA/Masters in Finance will be highly preferred.
- CFA, CMA, CPA or other relevant professional certifications will be preferred.

Work Experience:

- Preferably 4 or more years of relevant work experience.

Skills – Generic:

- Communication, interpersonal, report-writing and presentation skills.
- Analytical thinking with a proactive approach to problem solving.
- Adaptable & Flexible in dynamic environments
- Capable of performing effectively under pressure
- Strong follow-up, ownership abilities, and able to perform efficiently under strict project deadlines.
- Self-motivated and results-driven, with a collaborative, team-oriented mindset.
- Advanced-level skills in Microsoft Office, particularly Excel and PowerPoint.

Skills – Job Specific:

- Proficiency in financial modeling and evaluation techniques using multiple relevant tools.
- Ability to report results effectively, analyze inputs, and engage stakeholders to align with organizational goals.
- Basic knowledge of network planning, telecom services, and overall network architecture.
- Business Acumen with an understanding of telecom operations.
- Experienced in financial management systems with strong understanding of related processes and system modules.
- Effective Project Management & Time Management skills
- Cross-functional coordination and stakeholder engagement across multiple departments.
- Ability to explain complex financial information to non-financial stakeholders.

To apply:

<https://www.linkedin.com/jobs/view/4459906760/>