Student Membership Application

Benefits:

The membership of CFA Nebraska represents a wide range of careers and organizations within the field of finance and investments. One of the most important benefits to becoming a member of CFA Nebraska is the ability to interact and network with fellow members. An added benefit is the opportunity to learn from industry professionals through lunch presentations and other events. The goal of the Student Membership is to afford these same opportunities to area college students. The benefits of becoming a member don't stop there. In addition to networking opportunities, your Student Membership means:

- Free admission to CFA Nebraska luncheons ($25 value).
- Discounted admission to special CFA Nebraska events such as the Value Investing Dinner.
- Member mailings informing you about upcoming CFA Nebraska events.

Criteria:

To be considered for Student Membership in the CFA Society Nebraska, the following criteria must be met:

- You must be enrolled in a university/college as one of the following:
