

Robin Wells, CFA

Robin Wells, CFA is the principle of his private wealth practice, Growe Capital Advisors, in New Canaan. He simplifies his clients' increasingly complex financial lives and providing tax, fee and risk efficiency to their estates in a 'private CFO' role to HNW families and family offices.

In his first career Robin worked on the institutional fixed income side heading the European Government Bond desk for global interdealer broker ICAP at their London, UK world headquarters.

Robin moved to the United States with his family of five in 2018 after 16 years in the UK, college years in Michigan and enjoying his upbringing and youth in his native Germany. Outside of work Robin enjoys family life and outdoor activities such as hiking, paddle tennis and golf.
