

Position: Analyst- Advisory Department (GCC Research/ Advisory)

The Analyst – Advisory would work as a core member of the advisory team working on local & global advisory /corporate finance mandates, ranging from feasibility studies, business valuations, business plans, transaction advisory, strategy advisory, deal advisory, transformation advisory and highest & best use studies. The analyst will assist senior members of the team on assigned advisory / corporate finance mandates. Key job description of the analyst would be as follows:

- Conduct primary and secondary research
- Conducting in-depth data analyses using traditional and advanced methods
- Source information from public sources, industry and paid-research data bases
- Prepare business plans, business valuations, financial feasibilities, information memorandums and other documents as and when required
- Prepare financial models - to forecast financial statements and market trends
- Assist senior managers in developing investment presentations including feasibility presentations, investment proposals, investment teasers, etc.
- Author reports containing actionable recommendations on Trading comps, Transaction comps,
- Industry analysis, Thematic Studies etc.

Requirements:

The candidate should at least have an ACCA or a Bachelor's degree in economics, finance, accounting or related areas from a well reputed institution with at least 1–3 years of experience in Equity Research, Corporate Finance, Advisory or Investment Banking. Candidates actively pursuing the CFA charter will be preferred.

The other requirements are given below:

- Strong analytical and conceptual skills encompassing finance and investment
- Thorough understanding of basic and advanced finance concepts
- Proficient in MS Office and strong presentation skills
- Excellent communications skills (both written and oral English)
- Should be confident, hardworking, result oriented and a good team player

Job Location: Shahrah-e-Faisal, Karachi

Please share relevant CVs at jobs@akseerresearch.com with the subject “Analyst- Advisory Department”

NOTE: WE ARE AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER (FEMALES ARE HIGHLY ENCOURAGED TO APPLY)