

Position 01: Senior Analyst-Advisory & Consulting (On-site)

Job Description: Senior Analyst - Advisory & Consultancy

Sr Analyst - Advisory & Consultancy would work with our global advisory team on diverse corporate finance projects, including feasibility studies, valuations, and more. Key responsibilities would be as follows:

- Conduct primary and secondary research; and in-depth data analyses using traditional and advanced methods
- Conduct market analysis, identify demand & supply gaps, and opportunity identification
- Source information from public sources, industry and paid-research databases
- Prepare business plans, business valuations, financial feasibility, financial due diligence, information memorandums and other documents as and when required
- Prepare financial models - to forecast financial statements and market trends
- Assist senior managers in developing investment presentations including feasibility presentations, investment proposals, investment teasers, etc.
- Author reports containing actionable recommendations on Trading comps, Transaction comps, Industry analysis, Thematic Studies, etc.

Candidate Profile:

The candidate should at least have a Bachelor's degree in economics, finance, accounting, or related disciplines from a reputable institution or ACCA certification. Candidates actively pursuing the CFA charter will be preferred. Other requirements:

- 3-5 years of experience in Equity Research, Transaction advisory, Corporate Finance, Advisory or Investment Banking
- Strong analytical and conceptual skills encompassing finance and investment
- Thorough understanding of basic and advanced finance concepts
- Proficient in MS Office and strong presentation skills
- Excellent communications skills (both written and oral English)
- Should be confident, hardworking, result oriented and a good team player

Job Location:

Shahrah-e-Faisal near Tipu Sultan Road, Karachi.

Please share CVs at jobs@akseerresearch.com with the position as the subject line.

We are an equal opportunity employer and females are highly encouraged to apply.