

Trivium Global - Senior Analyst

Trivium Global is seeking to expand its team with a Senior Analyst to assist the core consulting team with client engagements; executing capital/private markets and strategic advisory assignments; and supporting day-to-day operations. This is a Full-time position.

Ideal candidates will be detail-oriented, intellectually curious with a financial or analytical background. Candidates should have strong communication (mainly written) skills, be comfortable reading and understanding financial and legal documentation, as well as experience with financial models and analysis. We are looking for someone with sound judgment, as well as strong financial skills who is driven, humble and a committed team player.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Support the team with multiple project streams in M&A, Valuation, FP&A projects
2. Track, analyze and report on public and private companies
3. Conduct investment/industry research, including monitoring markets and industry trends
4. Drive financial modelling, due diligence and analysis
5. Prepare and support preparation of Investment Memos and Pitch-decks for clients
6. Present analysis and findings to team and clients
7. Support ongoing operations, including key administrative and other tasks

Required Prior Experience:

1. 2 to 3 years financial or analytical experience desired, preferably within an investment
2. house/investment bank, international financial organization, fund structure and / or
3. financial consulting organization
4. Undergraduate degree from a leading institution
5. Good to have but not required: ACCA/CA,CFA (FMVA certifications would be a plus)

Other items:

1. Remote/hybrid working environment
2. Laptop and other equipment provided by company
3. Partially flexible working hours based on client/project and internal company needs
4. Annual Performance Bonus
5. Opportunity to learn and grow within a consulting organization involved in multiple high impact workflows for international clients in the Middle East and USA

Applications with cover letter should be submitted to nimra@triviumglobal.com & usman@triviumglobal.com by 20th May, 2024