Target a Deep Pool of Highly Qualified Job Candidates

CFA Society Vancouver's Job Board is open to CFA® charterholders within the Lower Mainland and across Canada. By working with the CFA Institute Career Center, we will provide employers and recruiters access to a global job board created exclusively for CFA charterholders, CFA Institute members, and CFA Program candidates.

Access the CFA Institute Network of More Than 250,000 Investment Management Professionals Worldwide

Employers and recruiters can search the resumé database independently to source applicants and build a talent pipeline. Posting your position on both CFA Society Vancouver's Job Board and the CFA Institute Career Center will alert every member and candidate within our rapidly expanding network who has expressed an interest in opportunities requiring the specific knowledge, skills, and abilities you desire.

Find Local and Global Talent

Our niche Job Board helps you comprehensively view up-to-date global and local talent markets for your positions of need. Because all CFA charterholders have completed the rigorous CFA Program and are required to follow the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, you won't have to sift through applicants who don't meet your own high standards.

Save Time and Money on Training with Curated Career Resources

As career-development hubs for CFA charterholders, CFA Institute members, and CFA Program candidates, CFA Society Vancouver's Job Board and the CFA Institute Career Center are visited by motivated individuals who aren't just looking for a job—they're seeking out opportunities to better themselves. Our career resources provide guidance for our constituents across the span of their careers and encourage the pursuit of professional development.
